ANARCHISTS FACE 25 YEARS IN CELLS

Grand Jury Gets Case of New York "Reign of Terror" Plotters.

CHURCHES ARE CLOSELY WATCHED BY POLICE

Abarno Confesses, According to the Police-Carbone Corroborates Story.

NEW YORK, March 3 .- In presenting to the grand jury today the cases of Frank Abarno and John Carbone, who are accused of placing bombs in St atrick's Cathedral yesterday, District Attorney Perkins will ask for their indictment under a section of the penal code designating as a felony the acts of persons who attempt to explode explosives in any building with intent to iestroy, although no damage is done The penalty upon conviction may be The arrest of Abarno and Carbone ded an ambitious plot, according to the police, of which the wrecking of the cathedral was to be only the first of a series of similar explosions directed against the homes of Andrew Carnegie, John D. Rockefeller and other rich men, and extending to the Churches Are Guarded. Policemen, not in uniform, who were detailed yesterday to maintain a watch over St. Patrick's Cathedral, continued on duty today, and it was said that of the strong force of police who have been tracing the men suspected of bomb making, several would be assigned to guard other churches against which atguard other churches against which attacks were expected to be made. The arrest of Abarno and Carbone ended the first detective assignment of Ameueo Fonginani, twenty-five years old, a memoer of the police force for the past year, and until assigned to this case last November a patroiman on regular outy at an upper East Side station, there the name of baido the young patroiman won the conndence of anarchists, according to Capit, Tunney, to chists, according to Capt. Tunney, to whom Commissioner Arinur Wood gave the order to get the courch wreckers immediately after a bomb after been exploded in St. Patrick's October 13 last. To Forginan, Capt. Tunney assigned the dangerous task of actually trailing the bomomakers.

Lived With Anarchists.

For months Poliginani lived with the en arrested yesterday and made re ports of the progress of the piot to Capt. Tunney, which enabled the police to carry out hawtess arrangements for the plans carried out that few of the everar hundred worshipers in cathedral were aware of the slight disturbance caused by the movements of the large force of detectives to capture Abarno. Detectives disguised as scrubwomen waited in the vestibules to scrubwomen waited in the vestibules to stamp out lighted Iuses there and others guarded the interior, one even acting as usher for Abarno and Poliginani, he it was who stamped out the tuse which Abarno lighted from his cigar. The only slip in the arrangement was the failure of Carbone to appear at the cathedral. He was arrested at his home. The detective bureau announced that Carbone admitted that he made the bombs.

"Reds" Deny They Know Men.

Prominent anarchist leaders, among them Emma Goldman, Benjamin Reitmann, Raimondo Fasio and Carlo Tresca, deciared that Abarno and Carbone were unknown to them personally and that their acts could not be attributed to an anarchistic plot against wealthy men and banks, such as the police declared to be the case.

It was several hours after the arrest of Abarno and Carbone that John D. of Abarno and Carbone that John D. Rocketeller, jr., learned of the alleged plot to kill the more prominent millionaires of the city, including himself, his father, Andrew Cainegie and otners. Through his secretary, he said he had no comment to make. Andrew Carnegie and Cornelius Vanderbilt also refused to make a statement.

Led Into Confession

Through the clever replies of Polignani, the detective who assumed the er's examination, Abarno was led into making a confession, according to the police, and later Carbone corroborated poince, and later Carbone corroborated nis partner's story. Abarno's story to the police was described later by officers as follows:

"I was in this job, but never in any other. I put those bombs in there. I had been told that Archoishop Corrigan and Archbishop Hughes and other jump me in the church were buried under the floor of which I put the bombs, and it was my hope that the explosion would open their grayes.

Begins Study of Anarchy.

"About five years ago I began to study anarchy. That, I decided, was the proper means of settling the wrongs of the poor. This was a terrible winter for the poor. Our group decided to do something. We decided to open a campaign against the Catholic and Protestant churches, then to terrorize and pernaps destroy the homes of the kocketellers, Carnegic and some of the Vanderbitts, and finally, when we had the city terrorized, to invade the banks at the head of an army of the poor and help ourselves to the hoards of the rich.

St. Patrick's First on List.

"We fixed on St. Patrick's Cathedra; is the place to start because it is the biggest Catholic church, and ou. demonstration there would attract se much attention. Carbone was selected to make the bomb, and he bought to materials uptown.

"He made the bomb according to di rections in a book printed in Italian and circulated by the anarchists. This and circulated by the anarchists. This book tells how to make bombs, how to place them and how to get away. "Carbone made the bomb in a room on 3d avenue."

"You neighbor him make it:" snarled

"I helped some," admitted Abarno. "I helped some," admitted Abarno.
"We took the materials to the room in, a trunk, which we left there. Had we succeeded today we would have used that room as our headquarters for bomb making. Nobody suspected us.'
Abarno insisted that he had no part in the bomb explosions of last fall in St. Patrick's Cathedral and in front of St. Alphonesus Church.

Polignani Assigned.

It had been decided by the police that the Bresci group of anarchists was the most dangerous in the city and Polignani joined the group. So well did he act his part that he was considered to be one of the most fearless members. He picked Abarno and Carbone as the Alleges He Was Assaulted.

Patsy Mann, forty years old, 1232 Sth treet northwest, was treated at Emerancy Hospital early this morning for unerous injuries to his face and body. It is said he had been assaulted by unlentified men while in the southwest ection of the city.
